Order thereon No. R 977
Dated Bangalore 18 August 1910

The amount proposed to be remitted is the assessment and local cess due on Sur. Nos. 68,69,70,71,72,75 and 64 of the Herod village, French Rocks Sub Taluk from the year Virodhi (1889-90) to Plavanga (1907-08). These lands are reported to have been purchased by the temple at a court sale on 21st March ~~1910~~ 1902, in the execution of a mortgage decree which the temple had obtained against one Shamanna to whom the lands originally belonged. Ever since the lands came to the possession of the temple they are stated to be lying waste owing to the failure of timely rains and the absence of a proper aqueduct to irrigate them. The utmost concession which may be granted in these circumstances is the remission of half the assessment. But this concession cannot be indefinitely ---- granted. It will cease with the year 1907-08 up to the end of which the remission statement is drawn up.

This may be filed. 17-8-10
